If for any reason the Successful Bidder fails to close within 30 days of the Notice of Award, i.e., render full payment of the consideration upon which the bid was awarded, such failure shall be construed as a refusal to pay the consideration due the JWSC under the terms of the Real Estate Sales Contract and Invitation for Sale by Sealed bid and as a refusal to accept the JWSC's deed. The JWSC shall, at its option, retain the earnest money deposit and have the right to pursue any and all remedies available to it at law or in equity, including but not limited to the right to specific performance. If the JWSC is successful in enforcing its right to specific performance, the JWSC may demand that the Successful bidder pay the JWSC's reasonable attorney's fees incident thereto.

17) SUCCESSFUL BIDDER'S RIGHTS UPON FAILURE OF JWSC TO CLOSE

Subject to the JWSC's rights to reject any and all bids, the JWSC shall tender a duly executed Quit Claim deed conveying the land or interest in real property offered by it for sale within 120 days after Notice of Award to the successful bidder. Failure by the JWSC to close and deliver such Quit Claim Deed within the 120-day period shall entitle the successful Bidder to refuse to close the transaction by giving written notice of such action to the Procurement Director. Upon receipt of such written notice of refusal, the JWSC shall cancel the transaction and return all earnest money to the Successful Bidder. Neither the JWSC nor the Successful Bidder shall be liable to any party in any respect as a result of such refusal to close the transaction under this circumstance.
